He is Risen!

As a green bud
in the springtime is a sign of
life renewed,
so may we be
signs of oneness
'mid earth's peoples, many hued.
As a rainbow
lights the heavens when a
storm is past
and gone,
may our lives
reflect the radiance of God's
new and glorious dawn.

Risen

indeed!

The Messenger

Sunday's a Coming!

The old saying “It’s Friday... But Sunday’s a Coming” rings true as we approach Easter. The gloom of the cross of Good Friday seems to overshadow the Holy Weeks events but we must be reminded “It’s Friday... But Sunday’s a Coming!” The grief and fear of the women who approached the tomb worried about the stone that had been rolled in front of the entrance might be what captures our heart and reminds us of our own grief and loss, but we cannot forget “It’s Friday... But Sunday’s a Coming!”

Tony Campolo said it like this:

“Remember, “It’s only Friday... but Sunday’s coming!”

“It’s Friday... Jesus was nailed dead on a cross.

But it’s only Friday; Sunday’s coming!

It’s Friday... Mary’s crying her eyes out ‘cause her Jesus is dead.

But it’s only Friday; Sunday’s coming!

It’s Friday... The disciples are running around like sheep without a shepherd.

But it’s only Friday; Sunday’s coming!

It’s Friday... Pilate’s strutting around washing his hands ‘cause he thinks he’s got all the power and victory.

But it’s only Friday; Sunday’s coming!

It’s Friday... People are saying “as things have been so they shall be – you can’t change anything in this world.”

But it’s only Friday; Sunday’s coming!

It’s Friday... Satan’s doing a jig saying, “I control the whole world.”

But it’s only Friday; Sunday’s coming!

It’s Friday... The temple veil ripped from top to bottom -the earth shook- the rocks split and tombs opened. The centurion screamed in fear, “Truly, He is the Son of God!”

But it’s only Friday; Sunday’s coming!

It’s Sunday– “The angel, like dazzling lightening, rolled the stone away exclaiming, “He is not here! He is risen!”

It’s Sunday! It’s Sunday! It is Sunday!

COSTA RICA MISSION TRIP FOR 2019

Palms and Pancakes

When: Sunday, April 14th

Time: 8:00-10:50am

Where: Heritage Hall (or take a plate to Sunday School!)

Cost: Donations very gratefully accepted

The Costa Rica Mission Team is grateful for the support shown to us as we travel on July 20-28th to be in service with and to the people of Costa Rica. We will continue our work on building a church for one of the poorest areas of Costa Rica, as well as leading Vacation Bible School each afternoon for the area children.

If it is difficult for you to come to the kitchen to be served, call or text Brenda, 656-0679, and one of the team will bring a plate to your Sunday School Class.

Easter Breakfast

Make time Easter morning to stop by the kitchen for Breakfast, served 8-11, with additional seating in the FirstPlace Café and Library.

Helping Hands Set to Help Saturday, April 6

FirstFamily’s very own “Helping Hands” team are ready to begin helping a family whose home needs “sprucing and repairs”! Led by Jay Jones and Kevin Porche the team will work on a home on Ave Z. Saturday’s day will be filled with a lot of hammering and painting. The residents, a sweet mother and daughter duo are excited and eager to see what transpires.

The Harmony Sunday School class are providing the nutritional needs for the team. Breakfast and lunch are planned along with snacks and beverages for the team which consists of approximately 15 carpenters and painters.

Helping Hands is a community-wide effort that evolved from the “Christmas in April” efforts of the past. On Saturday, in San Angelo, there will be many homes receiving repairs and renovations as a city-wide canvas of teams set to work. FUMC’s Helping Hands participates in this worthy project for San Angelo; and also, offers their talents to church members throughout the year.

FirstChurch Youth Council

Youth parents and student,

A few month's ago I mentioned during a Sunday Night Youth Group that we were going to begin a Youth Council, and have also heard from some students that they are feeling called into deeper discipleship as well as possibly called into service within our youth group.

Through some prayer and discernment, I believe it's time to begin the process of formalizing a youth council made up of students from our group. While we won't elect officers until the fall, I believe we need to begin the process of gathering to set some rules and a statement of purpose for our group.

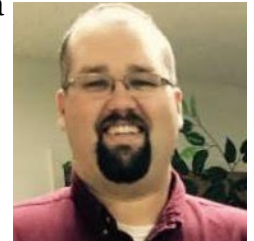

If you have students who have an interest in leadership in our group, please bring them to the church at 4:00 on Sunday, April 7.

This group will be the voice of our youth program. They will have a voice on Church Council, which is the governing body of the church, and will also help lead our program into the future. With guidance from our adult volunteers and sponsors they will help make decisions regarding our programs, our events, and how we operate as a youth group within the church.

While there are only a set amount of voting members, every student is encouraged to attend each meeting. This is just the beginning, and it will take some time to gain some momentum, but I believe this is the direction we need to begin to move toward as our Youth Council will be a big part of who we are as a group.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me

Pastor Bryan

A Message From Tony

SPIRIT First, regarding tour!! GREAT NEWS!! All performances have been secured for tour. We will be working on finalizing our itinerary and I will be passing on more information soon about the where's and when's of the churches and places we will be sharing Godspell with this year on tour! Very excited! Looks like it will be another great tour for our kids!

- Upcoming singing dates:
- April 14 – Palm Sunday, 11th Hour
 - April 18 – Maundy Thursday Service
 - May 19 – Confirmation Sunday One All-Church Service

Beginning in May we will begin our Sunday afternoon rehearsals in preparation for Godspell tour.

Geraniums are just about ready to go!!

For the 15 people that committed to selling geraniums for a fundraiser the geraniums are ready to go. Keep an eye out for more information if you are selling geraniums. I have a list of individuals who contacted me originally and I will divide the numbers between those folks.

Anyone interested in buying geraniums should contact a youth to place an order. Orders go quickly so make it a priority.

YOUTH are selling Geraniums this year!

UMW meets April 3rd study from our Response Magazine

Do Come! -

Cathy Hubbard 658-5375 fmi
Next meeting: May 1st

First United Methodist Church in San Angelo was the meeting place for the West District UMW on March 2, 2019. We celebrated 150 years of UMW. In 1869 eight women met in Boston and organized the Methodist Woman's Foreign Missionary society and sent two women as missionaries to India. They set up a school for girls and a Medical Clinic for women and children.

Nathaniel Hankins provided the Invocation at the meeting. It was very special for us to have him there. His wife Mary was active in UMW and it was Hank's birthday!

We had 12 UMW churches from 12 towns represented there. The program was presented by Cathy Hubbard and each district officer gave a report and discussed the displays. There was a sharing session on ideas and needs. Our local mission, which is supported by all groups, was for the Women and Children's Shelter of San Angelo.

Eagle Scout Project

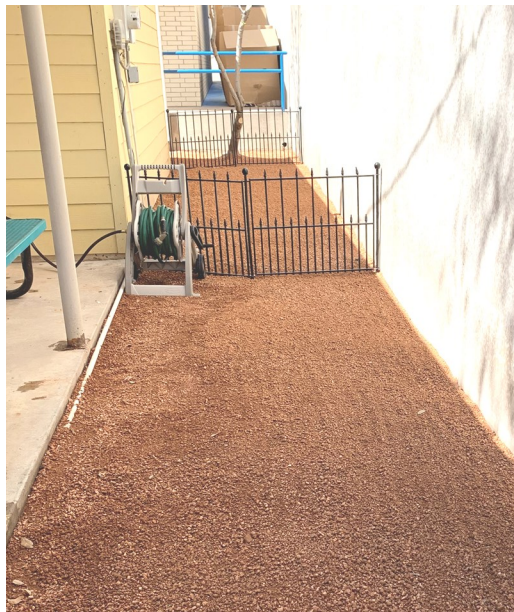

First United Methodist Church, and First Kids Club would like to thank Boy Scout, Jayce Bass who decided to work on our FUMC playground as his Eagle Scout Project. Beginning in January, Jayce contacted Miranda Rogers to begin the process of renovating the playground, and work began at the end of March.

ground, and work began at the end of March.

Jayce replaced much of the crushed granite, cleaned up the area behind the restrooms, and even raised funds to purchase a new Toddler Playset for the use of our First Kids Club.

The project, costing around $5000.00, was completed on March 31st with the help of both our Youth Group Students and other scouts from Troop One, our Church's chartered troop. I hope you will take a moment and look at our cleaned up and repaired playground!
